VIENNA HIGHLIGHTS GREEN LIVING AT ANNUAL EXPO

Vienna, VA- The Town of Vienna will host the 6th Annual Green Expo on Thursday, April 24, from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Vienna Community Center, 120 Cherry Street SE. Admission is free.

Presentations and discussions for children and adults from more than 35 juried organizations and businesses will include information on energy efficiency, purchasing local organic products, creating green gardens, recycling options and more practical ideas to save money and help the environment.

New this year, the Northern Virginia Soil and Water Conservation District will offer rain barrel workshops, tips for rain gardens and guidance on protecting our streams and rivers.

The alternative fuel auto collection will be back for a second year. Featured cars include a converted BMW Z3, Tesla, Chevy Volt, Nissan Leaf and a converted bi-fuel, hybrid-electric Prius. All vehicles are owned by area residents who will be onsite to answer questions.

This year's Vienna Green Expo will again feature the Children's Passport Program. Youth are invited to visit vendors, learn something new and complete their passport for a chance to win great prizes. Free and open to school-aged children. For more information, call the Vienna Parks and Recreation Department at (703) 255-6360 or visit www.viennava.gov.
